had been erected on the knoll at the upper pine tier, and there the people assembled.

The meeting was opened with the busie call, "assembly," by Comrade A. L. Sweet of Providence. Prof. W. O. Turner led in the singing of the Doxology; invocation, Rev. E. M. Anthony: Scripture reading, Rev. L. M. Flocken; selo and chorus, Battle Hymn of the Republic, with a soloist for each verse; remarks by His Honor, Mayor Costello Lippitt, of Norwich, whose main thought was that "Religion and patriotism should go together." Then followed a double male quartette, Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean. Colonel Dent of Rockville then called the G. A. R. veterants to the front. Twelve responded and stood at attention while Comrade Sweet played The Star Spangled Banner on the cornet. During this, a beautiful flag, $x15, was slowly drawn to the top of the staff by Allen W. Sterry, grandson of a veteran. It was an inspiring sight to see the twelve veterans salute the flag.

The male quartette rendered Flag of the Free, after which Miss Anita Vall of Springfield gave an historical sketch of the making of the flag. America was heartly joined in by the audlence. The benediction was pronounced by Rev, E. F. Smith, Comrade Sweet sounded Taps on the bugie and the audlence dispersed.

To the energy of Miss M. L. Broker is due this beautiful flag and the arrangement of the programme, Through the courtesy of W. B. Watrous programmes in red and blue were distributed.

Loss in Prospect Street Fire-W. C. T. U. Meeting-Borough Briefs.

A fire, probably started from fire-crackers, did considerable damage to property on Prospect street Monday night. A house and barn owned by Paul Champagne were totally destroyed and the adjoining house, in which Mr. Champagne lives, was damaged. A barn and woodshed belonging to Samuel Keralansky were burned. The loss on the houses and shed is covered by insurance, but the loss on barn and contents will be total, as there was no insurance. Mr. Kerklansky had about $1,000 worth of shoddy and rags in the barn.
